HOPE FOR HIS CHILDREN, INC.

Hope For His Children exists to show the love of Jesus Christ to orphaned, abandoned and impoverished children of the world.

We seek to do this through our two-fold mission:

- 1) To increase awareness among our family, friends, church and community regarding the desperate needs of orphaned, abandoned and impoverished children.
- 2) To generate support for these children in the form of: financial contributions, donations of various supplies, prayer commitments and mission trips.

Hope For His Children is a Christian, non-profit organization. We have 501 (c)(3) status with the IRS, therefore all donations are tax deductible. Our U.S. staff is comprised of volunteers only, allowing 100% of all support and contributions to directly help the children. We have formed partnerships with individuals and organizations both locally and overseas who share our passion for His children.

Why is the trip called “Changed.2026”??

We believe that when we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, we are changed completely from the inside-outbut it should not stop there. We are changed for a purpose. For HIS purpose. The title is a reminder of the “why” behind the “go”. The idea was inspired by the song “Changed” by Aaron Niequest.

“Changed” by Aaron Niequest

In Jesus’ name I’ve been changed,
I’ve been filled, I’ve been found, I’ve been freed, I’ve been saved!
In Jesus’ blood I’ve been loved,
I’ve been cleansed, And redeemed, and released, rearranged
But how can I show You that I’m grateful? You’ve been so generous to me.
How can I worship more than singing? And live out Redemption’s melody.

I have been blessed – now I want to be a blessing

I have been loved – now I want to bring love

I’ve been invited – I want to share the invitation

I have been changed – to bring change, to bring change

In Jesus’ name we are changed, we are called,

We are chosen, adopted, and named!

In Jesus’ blood we are loved, we are healed,

We’re forgiven and free of our shame!

We want to show You that we’re thankful

Flooding Your world with hope and peace

Help us to worship more than singing

Giving Redemption hands and feet

We have been blessed– now we’re going to be a blessing

We have been loved– now we’re going to bring love

We’ve been invited– we’re going to share the invitation

We have been changed– to bring change, to bring change

We have been changed– to bring change, to bring change

Thank You for this new life, thank You for the invitation!

God, we want to live it loud enough to shake the nations in Your name!

We have been saved– we’re going to shout about the Savior

We have been found– we’re going to turn over every stone

We’ve been empowered– to love the world to Heaven

We have been changed– to bring change, to bring change

We have been changed– to bring change, to bring change

We have been changed– to bring change, to bring change

ABOUT SHORT TERM MISSIONS

We believe that short-term mission trips are valuable for several reasons.

-Hope for His Children: As an organization, it is important for us to see first-hand how our support is being utilized. By visiting our ministry partners, we can evaluate how funding has been used, ensuring that we are being good stewards. In addition, we can identify areas of need and consider ways to increase our effectiveness. Short-term mission trips also help us fulfill our mission to increase awareness and generate support.

-The children and our ministry partners: Our ministry partners benefit in several ways when we bring a team to visit. The children enjoy having visitors (especially foreign ones!) and can receive the love of Christ through the hands and feet of His followers. Teams provide volunteer “labor” for projects, lessons, etc. When we take teams to visit our ministry partners, we also bring with us material supplies that they have requested to help their ministry function.

-Individual team members: Many people return from a short-term mission trip feeling as though they have received more than they have given. Often we go with the hope of “making a difference in people’s lives” (Thank you, Lord, that YOU do that work!) but we are surprised at what a huge difference it makes in our own lives. There is something amazing that happens when we step out of our own comfort to serve others, especially those in need.

As you will soon learn, our goal is that this short-term mission trip will be much “bigger” than a ten day trip to the other side of the world. We believe the opportunities to grow and witness begin TODAY and will hopefully last a lifetime.

Jesus commanded that we “Go and make disciples of all nations” (Matthew 28:19). An important part of this is “going” to our close family and friends, our neighbors and our community. But it doesn’t have to stop there. We can be a part of taking the gospel to the nations of the world. What a privilege that is!

However, short-term missions are not without their short-comings. We want to be very mindful of how our helping can sometimes be hurtful. As we prepare to serve, we hope that each person will gain a better understanding of the possible “downsides” of short-term missions. By being aware, we will hopefully avoid some of the traps that could cause our efforts to have a negative impact on those we are hoping to serve.

IT’S A BIG DECISION

For many reasons, a mission trip to Ethiopia is a big decision. Please pray faithfully as you consider this short-term mission trip opportunity. From our standpoint, we pray from the beginning that the Lord will “build” each team. He knows the people and the labor that lies ahead of us even better than we do. We trust that He is fully able to bring together the perfect “set” of gifts, talents, personalities, etc. to carry His name with us.

PRE-TRIP PREPARATIONS

Forms: Please return the Mission Trip Commitment Form (p. 25-26) , along with the Acceptance of Core Beliefs (p. 27) and the Volunteer Release Form (p. 28). Participants under 18 years old must have the form signed by a parent/guardian (and must be accompanied on the trip by an adult responsible for them).

Passport: You must have a valid passport. Please check to make sure your passport does not expire until 6 months after our return date. Also, be sure your passport has at least 3-4 blank visa pages.

If you need to obtain or renew your passport, visit: www.usps.com/passport to find out what you need to do.

Once you are certain that your passport meets the above requirements, please send a copy of your passport photo page to Hope For His Children. It is also a good idea to take a color copy with you to Ethiopia. This can be left at our guest house and would be helpful if you were to lose your passport. (But, don't lose your passport!!)

Immunizations: You should discuss with your doctor what vaccines will be needed prior to travel to Ethiopia. You can also visit the CDC website at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/traveler/none/ethiopia>

The following is list of vaccines that may be recommended: routine vaccines (DTaP, Polio, Measle/Mumps/Rubella), Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B, Yellow Fever, Meningitis, Typhoid, Covid-19. Malaria prophylaxis is not required IF we are staying in or near Addis Ababa. However, if the trip includes travel outside of that area, you may need to take malaria prevention medications.

Note: When you receive your Yellow Fever vaccine, you should be given a yellow immunization card. Just keep this with your passport.

Consider making an appointment at a travel clinic (Passport Health, Dr. Aziz, Franciscan, etc.).

Visa: We will obtain a 30 day, single-entry tourist visa prior to leaving the US. The visa cost $52 and can be obtained online: <https://www.evisa.gov.et/visa/apply>

Notify US Embassy: All U.S. citizens are encouraged by the U.S. Department of State to register with them prior to traveling abroad. This would allow our government to notify/contact us if an emergency situation arose (either in the U.S. or Ethiopia) while we are in Ethiopia. You can do this (free of charge) through the S.T.E.P. program at the following website: <https://travelregistration.state.gov/ibrs/ui/>

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS:

Cost: The total cost for the trip will vary depending upon airline ticket prices and the number of participants. Trip costs will likely run between $2,000 to $2,500. The following is the approximate breakdown of expense and estimated due dates. Please note that these are subject to change as we begin airfare negotiations:

Deposit (reserves your spot)-----due: ASAP----- $300* (as soon as possible)

Airfare/ Trip Ins.----due: 12/30/25--- $1,500* (assumes recent airfare trends)

Final payment-----due: 1/15/26-----$ 0-700* (TBD after airfare is purchased)

This estimate includes meals, in-country transportation, and group tips. Hope For His Children makes every attempt to minimize costs as much as possible. We have done our best to anticipate every cost, however, it is possible that unforeseen charges could occur (hotel costs due to layovers/missed connections, extra baggage fees, etc). On the other hand, if there is money left over after all trip expenses have been paid, that money will be dispersed to ministries we served while in Ethiopia. The board of directors will decide how to portion any extra funds after all trip expenses are covered.

 If you have the desire to go, but not the funds, please discuss this issue with us.

Travel Insurance: Hope for His Children requires all team members to have a travel insurance policy in place through the duration of the trip. We will purchase individual policies through our travel agent. We will do this as a group. Travel insurance usually costs $50-90 for the entire trip. This has already been calculated into the second payment (assuming airfare prices do not exceed our expectation). You will receive a copy of your individual policy before we travel.

Personal Expenses: You will want to bring some spending money for: airport meals/snacks, gift/souvenirs/coffee, church offering, individual tips, etc. $200 to $300 would be a good starting point (more or less, depending on your spending habits).

We will try to arrange some time for souvenir shopping in Addis Ababa. It is recommended that you take crisp, clean, new (dated 2003 or later) bills in increments of $20, $50 and $100. We would advise NOT relying on the use of credit/debit card. It is also important to notify your bank/credit card company that you will be in Ethiopia if you are taking your credit/debit card with you.

A Word about Fundraising:

Some team members choose to raise support for their trip, others pay for their trip out of personal funds. Many people do some of both. Donations are tax-deductible if made to Hope For His Children. (Due to IRS regulations donors cannot be refunded if you are unable to go on the trip. If this were to happen, the funds will be used to benefit the orphaned, abandoned and impoverished children we serve.)

There are many ways to generate support for your trip. Contact Hope For His Children if you are interested in ideas. Please be sure to update supporters upon your return from the trip. You may even want to consider inviting supporters to a special time of sharing stories and photos.

All donations to Hope For His Children are tax deductible and donors will receive documentation for tax purposes at the end of the year.

TEAM PREPARATIONS

In the months, weeks and days leading up to the trip, we will attempt to connect as a team. Please understand these activities are not mandatory, but will hopefully help prepare our hearts individually and as a group.

Bible/Book Study: We will choose a Bible study or book study to do as a group. If a team member cannot physically attend this study, we recommend still taking part by doing the study at home, or connecting virtually.

Suggested Reading: In addition to the group study, please see Appendix B for a list of suggested reading material.

Service Project: We will try to schedule at least one “group service project” for those who are available. This will be an opportunity to serve elbow-to-elbow in our community as we continue to prepare to serve on the other side of the world.

Roles: There are several opportunities to serve the team in specific roles. Please prayerfully consider how God has gifted you and how you might be able to serve the team before/during/after our trip. If you see an area within our team that could use a “leader”, please step up and let us know. We are confident that God has a purpose for each member of this team!

Some possible roles include (but are not limited to): Donation coordinator, VBS coordinator, Crafts coordinator, Womens fellowship coordinator, Meal coordinator, Historian, Devotion leaders (one for each day in Ethiopia), team Bible study leader volunteers (one for each week).

PACKING: Remember, “less is more”!

Luggage Allowance: It is important to check the current luggage allowance guidelines for whichever airline we have booked flights. Typically, each team member is allowed two checked bags (50 pounds each and a maximum of 62” combined height/length/depth), one carry-on and one backpack/purse/computer bag. We do request that you allow at least one of your checked bags to be used for donations. If you have additional space in your luggage to take more donated items, please let us know.

Clothing: See Appendix F for a suggested packing list. Keep in mind: no shorts, no straps (exposed shoulders), etc. Casual, modest dress will be acceptable most of the time. You may wish to bring one dressier outfit for church (or in case we are invited to go/speak somewhere). The days are warm and the nights are cool, so wearing layers is often a good strategy.

Comforts: In general, you will be forfeiting many of the comforts of home on a group mission trip to a third-world country. However, you will notice on the suggested packing list, there are a couple of items that may help you through what will most likely be a physically challenging week.

Medications: Be sure to bring any prescription medications you may need. Please discuss with your doctor additional medications to consider. For your convenience, many of these items have also been placed on the packing list.

DONATIONS

We will be collecting many donations in the months leading up to the trip. We have an Amazon “wish list” available to share with anyone/everyone. We will plan “packing days” a week or two before we travel. This will be an important time to organize, pack, weigh, label, etc. each piece of donation luggage. Every team member will then be given a piece of donation luggage to assume as their own. At that point, we will ask each person to “bond” with their suitcase/tote (ie. know what your piece of luggage looks like, know what its contents are, and treat it as your own personal suitcase/tote until we arrive at our guesthouse in Ethiopia).

TRAVEL DETAILS

At the airport: We will plan to arrive at the airport 2 ½ to 3 hours before departure. Luggage can be checked directly to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia (ADD). Please take time to check your boarding passes for accuracy. Also, be certain that your baggage claim tickets have “ADD” as the final destination. Put your boarding passes and baggage claim tickets in a safe place, you WILL need them.

In-flight: It is obviously a long way to Ethiopia! We suggest you sleep when you can during flights and layovers. Please communicate with others in the team if you are venturing away from the group for any reason. Remember to use the buddy system.

Arrival in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia!!:

Just prior to your arrival in Addis Ababa, the flight attendants will give you an “entry card” to fill out. It will ask for your name as it appears on your passport, country of residence (USA), date of birth, place of birth, your passport number, and your reason for coming to Ethiopia (tourist). All the other required information, such as where you will be staying, etc. will be provided to you before we travel.

Upon arrival at Bole International Airport, there are several steps before we can exit the airport and head to our guesthouse. This sounds like a very complicated process (and to some degree it is), but if you just follow along and have patience it will be completed....sooner or later. Welcome to Africa!

1.) IMMIGRATION: We will have purchased our visa prior to arrival. You will need your visa and passport. We will proceed as a team through Immigration. This step may seem a bit intimidating because often it is not a straightforward process. The process seems to change every year! Please have patience during this process, and try to appreciate that the “system” you are witnessing, with all its chaos, is the only one available for the entire country!

2.) BAGGAGE: After Immigration you can claim your luggage. There are carts for this, which can be wheeled to the parking lot to assist you. Porters may offer to help you, or tell you there is a fee. If you can manage your own luggage, just tell them “no thank you”.

3.) CUSTOMS: After we locate all our luggage, all bags will need to go through the customs area. Tell them you have “no goods to declare.” If you are stopped, tell them you are a tourist. Some bags will go through an x-ray, some may be selected to check. Remember to be patient, this can be a tedious process!

4.) EXIT: Make sure you have ALL of your luggage, and that we have all of our team together. We will be greeted by our in-country representative and drivers. It is common to be approached by beggars in the parking lot while proceeding to the vans.

IN-COUNTRY

Lodging: We will be staying at the Ordinary Hero Life Center & Guest House. Our goal is to provide safe, comfortable, economic lodging. Team members should expect to share their room with teammates, dormitory-style, possibly in bunk beds. “Girls room” and “Boys room”. Exceptions: married couples and related family members, IF (and only if) space is available. We will do our very best to accommodate married couples and families who wish to room together, but we cannot guarantee it. Please see Appendix D for the history and photos of the Ordinary Hero Guesthouse.

Please be aware that we are staying in a third-world country. Our guesthouse will be clean and comfortable, but you should EXPECT some inconveniences. At times there may be no electricity, at other times there may be no hot water (or water pressure). You should expect to feel a little “crammed” at times. When given the opportunity to shower, please plan to take a very efficient shower, realizing that other team members may be waiting (and hoping for some hot water, too!).

Transportation: Transportation while we are in Ethiopia has been included in your lodging costs. We will ride in vans for the majority of our in-country travel. Team members who need additional vehicle arrangements (for special projects, visits or excursions) will be responsible for covering the cost. We will be happy to help arrange this.

Contact Information: In case of emergency, there are several ways you can be reached while in Ethiopia.

Additional contact numbers will be provided before travel to Ethiopia

Ministry Opportunities: Hope for His Children has partnered with organizations whom we have grown to know and trust. Spending time with them gives us the opportunity to serve them and to see first-hand how the ministry is working. In addition, we may visit organizations/carepoints that we do not currently work closely with. This gives us the opportunity to increase awareness, see how God is moving in other ministries, and develop new relationships.

Please take time to read Appendix A for details about these organizations and people we will be serving:

Compassion Family International (CFI) – Adi Dagne, director

Onesimus Child Development Center – Nega Meaza, director

Mission 10:10 - Fekadu Shenkute

SAMPLE Itinerary: We will do our best to plan for the week. However, “this is Africa”...plans change. It is possible that our entire itinerary will look different by the time we are actually “put into action” in Ethiopia. But, to give you an idea, here is our initial draft:

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Fri.	Travel	Travel	Travel
Sat.	Arrive in Ethiopia	Unpack & Visit CFI	Rest
Sun.	Church at Beza	Lunch	Team preparation
Mon.	CFI (VBS and Women’s Fellowship)	Mission 10:10
Tues.	CFI (VBS and Women’s Fellowship)	Kebebe Orphanage	Intro to Onesimus
Wed.	CFI (VBS and Women’s Fellowship)	CFI Family Visits
Thurs.	CFI (VBS and Women’s Fellowship)	Onesimus
Fri.	CFI Family Day	Onesimus	Ethiopian Family Dinner @ guest house
Sat.	CFI Staff Encouragement	Teamwork	Teamwork
Sun.	Church	Travel	Home.

Again, please keep in mind that this schedule is subject to change, sometimes without advance notice. A flat tire, a late van, an unexpected illness, an unannounced visitor, unusual traffic, etc. are just a FEW of the examples of why we will need to be flexible.

Communication from Ethiopia: Please prepare your family to have low expectations of hearing from you on a regular basis. Internet access and cell phone use is very sporadic. We will do our best to make sure individuals have access to cell phones, but it is often difficult to provide access for the entire team. We will have a volunteer to serve as “stateside correspondent” to help facilitate communication. This person can send out a text/an email as needed. We will provide the contact info for this person prior to travel.

Food: It is strongly recommended that you not drink the tap water in Ethiopia. Drink plenty of bottled water. Remember to decline ice in your drink, also. Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be planned, but it is always possible that changes in plans could delay a meal. It is a good idea to bring snacks with you and keep a few in your backpack for the day. Trail mix, Granola/Cliff Bars, and beef jerky are convenient snacks to consider. Avoid fresh fruits/vegetables that have been washed.

Language: There are 90+ languages spoken by different people groups in Ethiopia. Amharic is the national language; it is unique to Ethiopia. English is the most widely spoken foreign language and is the medium of instruction in secondary schools and universities. Amharic was the language of primary school instruction, but has been replaced in many areas by local languages such as Oromifa and Tigrinya. Many of the children will speak some basic English. We will have translators with us at all times. It is not required to learn any Amharic phrases, but the children love to hear Americans try to speak their language. See Appendix E for common phrases. There are also some websites and YouTube videos that allow you to listen to basic Amharic phrases.

Money: Ethiopia uses the Ethiopian birr. As of December 2023, the exchange rate was 56:1. So for every $1 US, you will receive about 56 Ethiopian birr. For current exchange rates, visit: <http://www.exchange-rates.org/Rate/USD/ETB>. We will have opportunity as a team to exchange dollar to Birr as needed. In addition, the leader of the team will have Birr available for any unanticipated needs.

Weather and Elevation: The temperature in Addis Ababa is usually warm during the day (low to mid-80’s) and cool in the evenings. The skies are typically sunny, except during the rainy season, June through September. Addis Ababa is located at 8,000 feet above sea level. Maintaining adequate hydration may help reduce the symptoms of acute altitude sickness.

Safety: We will do everything possible to ensure a safe, secure trip. However, it is important to use common sense and follow the safety recommendations of our in-country hosts. No team member should venture off individually. Please always use the “buddy system” and notify a leader if you are breaking away from the group (this applies to airports, too!). If possible, groups of women should try to have a male with them.

Pick-pocketing is sometimes a problem. It is wise to carry money, cameras, phones and other valuables in such a way that limits accessibility.

Cultural Considerations: It would be impossible to describe here all of the cultural differences that you will see, hear and experience in Ethiopia. However, here are just a few things that might be helpful to know:

-In general, Ethiopians are warm and affectionate toward those they love. It is not uncommon to see adults, even of the same gender, hold hands or put arms around one another as they walk and talk.

-You will quickly become familiar with the “shoulder bump” greeting. You may also have an Ethiopian extend their arm (as if to shake hands) with a closed fist. They are offering you their forearm to shake and they do this out of politeness if they think their hand may be dirty.

-Before you take a photo it is polite to ask first. After you take the picture, it is nice to offer them (especially the children) an opportunity to see it on your screen. As you show them the photo, make a gesture that you think the picture is a good one, and be sure to say thank you.  Do not take pictures of ANYTHING related to the government, military, law enforcement, etc.! **

Loving the Beggar: You will, without a doubt, be approached by beggars...probably before you even leave the airport parking lot. There are many thoughts and opinions as to how to handle this situation. In general, it is best to remember that we are there to offer the love of Jesus, not just hand out a couple of dollars. In fact, in many ways we could do more harm than good by passing out things on the street. Our goal is to work through our local partners/ministries to help alleviate material needs when possible. We don't want to perpetuate the idea that Americans are there to give "things." It is perfectly fine (and sometimes the more loving thing to do) to politely say "No."

With that in mind, IF you feel strongly led to give materially in a situation, you should be careful HOW you do this. What can begin as a simple act of kindness, can quickly turn into a near-riot situation! You will be amazed (and maybe even frightened) to discover how many eyes were watching... and how many hands are now grabbing.

Maintaining Your Focus: Our purpose, above all else, is to show the love of Jesus Christ to those He has chosen to place in our path. We can do that only when we are grounded in Him.

Our goal will be to prepare ourselves each day with a morning devotion, getting into God's word and prayer as a group. These times are not mandatory, but are strongly encouraged. We will also try to close each day with a time of "evening debriefing" to reflect on what the Lord did to, in, and through our group that day. Members are also encouraged to take some time to journal each day. This is a great time to recall any special details of the day. As your experiences pile up through the week, you will be thankful for having recorded your individual details, thoughts and feelings. This will be something you will treasure once the trip is over. Whether you choose to use the journal pages we provide, or make reflections on your own, is entirely your decision.

Clock and Calendar: Ethiopia's calendar has 13 months and does not align with the calendar used by America. Likewise with their time; their day is divided into 24 hours, but the hours start each day at what we would call 6:00AM and resetting at what we call 6:00PM for the night. Ethiopian time more follows the sun with sunrise starting their clock. For example; what Americans call 9:00AM in the morning, Ethiopians refer to as 3:00 in the day. And what Americans call 7:00PM, Ethiopians refer to as 1:00 in the night. You can always ask if they are referring to "farenge saat" (foreigners time) or "habisha saat" (national time).

RETURNING HOME: Returning home is sometimes not as easy as you would think. You will have had a life changing experience that those close to you will not have had. The following suggestions were written by Alan Rabe, they may help you as you transition back to life "After Ethiopia."

Tips For Entering Life Back Home by Alan Rabe

Don't expect too much from other people. People may be too busy to listen to you as much as you expect them to. They won't be as excited about your trip as you are (not even your close family and friends). Remember, they had their own experiences while you were gone. Keeping your expectations low allows you to be pleasantly surprised by those who show great interest.

Share briefly. People do not want to hear everything that happened to you. Stifle the tendency to take them through a day-by-day account. They'll lose interest about midway through the second day!

Be careful about value judgments. Do not argue with people about values. It is counterproductive and alienates them. Upon your return, you may tend to be judgmental about the values in American culture. We all need to reevaluate our lifestyles from time to time, but it's not up to us to determine other's convictions for them. The Holy Spirit is far more effective than a censorious spirit. Let them see a changed life.

Do not be critical of others' spirituality. God may be teaching others in ways you don't understand. Just because you went on this trip and learned what you did does not give you the right to be critical of others.

Be prepared for nostalgia. Sometimes you may long to be back in the country. You may ache to be back with some of the nationals that became your friends. And believe it or not, you may want to be m=back with some of your teammates! Expect those feelings and be prepared for them.

Don't let a little depression take you by surprise. When feelings of nostalgia hit, you may experience a little depression. Others go through it too, so call a teammate and talk with him or her about what you are feeling. Remember, you are not alone!

Be cautious about negative reporting. Things may have happened on your trip that were not to your liking. They are fresh in your mind now, but time will give you perspective on them. If you are very critical and negative in your reporting, you do disservice to others. Share the tough experiences in the light of what God taught you and the team through them.

Try to stay in touch with one or two individuals you met on your trip. Receiving a letter may help you remember the good experiences you had.

Contact your prayer partners and financial supporters. Of all the people back home, these will be the most interested in your trip. We suggest you make this contact as personal as your situation allows. Thank them for their prayers and support. Ask them to pray for you as you readjust to daily living

Develop some realistic, practical applications for yourself. Avoid making unreasonable demand on yourself like, "I am going to pray for every missionary in that country for an hour every day." Think through some realistic ways of integrating your experiences into your daily routine at home.

APPENDIX A: “Meet the Ministries”

Compassion Family International (CFI) – Adi Dagne, director Hope For His Children is privileged to have CFI as our primary ministry partner in Ethiopia. Compassion Family International is a drop-in center started by Peter Abera. Peter was raised in an Orthodox family, but at the age of 16 accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. God gave Peter a vision and a passion to care for children, their families, and communities. CFI was founded in 2008 and serves families living in the Lafto area of Addis Ababa. Peter and the staff at CFI set out to “meet the children’s physical needs through nutrition, give them education, and teach them Biblical truths in hopes that they will one day choose a life of service to God.” Peter was joined in this ministry by his wife, Elizabeth. In 2017 Peter, Elizabeth and their children moved to the USA. Peter’s sister, Adi Dagne (who had previously served CFI for several years as “Project Director”) assumed the role of Director.

Adi and the staff of Compassion Family International serve over 210 children by: providing school supplies and uniforms, providing after-school tutoring, hosting summer Bible programs, serving 2 meals per day, providing for medical needs, teaching hygiene and healthy habits, distributing clothing and shoes, providing a safe/trusted community, offering training and counseling to the families, visiting homes to encourage and build relationships, praying for the children and families, sharing the love of God through daily interactions, teaching Biblical Truths and Moral Character Development classes. We also partner with CFI to help provide income generation activities (IGA) for families.

Hope For His Children is also honored to have Adi as our In-Country Representative. She is vital to our organization as we serve in Ethiopia. In addition to being the director for CFI, Adi helps us coordinate details for mission teams and provides cultural awareness to our ministry.

Onesimus Child Development Association – Nega Meaza, director The Onesimus Children Development Association is a Non-Government Organization (NGO) in Addis Ababa that seeks to rescue Ethiopia’s children at risk, ensuring they remain in (or return to) a loving home by providing holistic programs that meet their physical, emotional, developmental and spiritual needs.

Onesimus works with two primary groups of children: those who are on the verge of “streetism” and those who are full time street children. The central component of Onesimus’ work with these children is the transforming Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Gospel provides Onesimus with the necessary foundation to implement several other goals: 1) To rehabilitate street children and reintegrate them with their families 2) To prevent children on the verge of “streetism” from becoming full time street children and 3) To strengthen families by creating income generating activities that will afford them the ability to care for their families independently

Mission 10:10

Mission 10:10 is a nonprofit organization that works through Christ centered practices, equipping poor communities in Ethiopia to love the orphan, widow, disabled, and poor. By working alongside the local churches in these impoverished communities, Mission 10:10 can educate, empower, feed, and equip the community to lead with love. Orphans can be placed into loving foster homes rather than age out of orphanages, marriages can be strengthened rather than families being destroyed, widows can be equipped with job skills rather than be seen as worthless, and mouths can be fed.

– Jesus came to offer all “... real life, an abundant life.” John 10:10

Fekadu Shenkute, the international director at Mission 10:10, has nearly 25 years of experience both within the Christian church and with orphan care. In recent years, Fekadu felt God leading him to go beyond orphan care and expand into community reform that involves orphan care. He has taken the pro’s and con’s of the typical orphan care model and developed a “community caring for community” approach for Mission 10:10

OUR STORY:

The Ordinary Hero Life Center is made possible through the partnership with Bisrat Fantahun Guesthouse and the Beth Venable Memorial Fund.

Beth Ratliff Venable was a loving wife and mother of four, who lost her life to a brain disease in August, 2012. She had just become an adoptive mother to a beautiful son from Ethiopia months before she lost her life. Because of Beth's heart for Ethiopia and children in need, donations were collected on her behalf which turned into the Beth Venable Memorial Fund. The Life Center is made possible by this fund. It is our mission to see that new life, new hope, ministry, and outreach will spring forth from the Life Center because of the life, legacy, and passion for the children of Ethiopia, that Beth left behind.

We look forward to seeing short-term mission teams, adoptive families, long term missionaries, and guests experience the hope and joy that awaits you in this Life Center & Guest Home.

Mission, Purpose and Core Beliefs

OUR MISSION:

Hope For His Children exists to show the love of Jesus Christ to orphaned, abandoned and impoverished children of the world.

OUR PURPOSE:

To increase awareness
among our family, friends, church and community regarding the desperate needs of orphaned, abandoned and impoverished children.

To generate support for these children in the form of:
financial contributions, donations of various supplies,
prayer commitments and mission trips.

OUR CORE BELIEFS:

We believe in one God. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. He is the creator of all things.

We believe that Jesus Christ, God's only Son, born of the virgin Mary, is the Savior of the world. He lived a perfect and sinless life. He gave His life on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins and rose from the dead.

We believe the Holy Spirit is the presence of God dwelling within every Christian. He convicts people to belief and then equips believers for personal growth and service in the church.

We believe the Bible is the inspired word of God and the final authority for all matters of faith. It is relevant for today and serves as a light to our path.

We believe that man, created by God, willfully sinned, and as a result is separated from God and without hope apart from Jesus Christ.

We believe that salvation (the forgiveness of sins) comes by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. This free gift of salvation is offered to all who receive Jesus as Lord and Savior.

We believe the Bible teaches the pattern to follow to receive Jesus as Savior: believe in Jesus Christ as God's Son and Savior of the world, repent of personal sin, confess Jesus as Lord, and be immersed in baptism.

We believe the church is the body and bride of Christ and consists of all Christians everywhere.

We believe death seals the eternal destiny of each person. The saved will inherit eternal life and the unsaved will experience eternal separation from God.

We believe Jesus will one day return and reign forever as King of Kings and Lord of Lords.
